

The Table
1 Cor 11:23-26

“This therefore is the worthiness -- the best and only kind to bring to God -- to offer our vileness and our unworthiness to him so that his mercy may make us worthy of him; to despair of ourselves so that we may be comforted in him; to abase ourselves that we may be lifted up in him . . . as being poor, we come to a kingly giver; as sick to a physician; as sinners to the Author of righteousness; as dead, to him who gives life.”
Calvin’s Institutes; 4.17.42

APPLICATION QUESTIONS

1. have you ever hesitated to come because you felt unworthy? would you still do that or would you see that he wants you to come aware of your need of him?
2. what would it look like for you to come to the Lord’s supper each month with heightened expectations?
